There is a lot happening at school this week with the Twilight Markets on Friday. Homework has finished for the year, but Home Reading will continue this week and next week. The residents at Kiltearn House enjoyed our singing last week. It was great to see our Preschool friends again when we visited last week. A reminder that our portraits are still available for sale $5.00 each. They will be displayed at the Markets. Gold Awards - Scarlett Hocking and Maddison Wood.

Class 1-2
Last week students had the opportunity to participate in an Indigenous Cultural Experience session with Wijajuri local, Mark Saddler. Students thoroughly enjoyed engaging with Mark whilst learning about his Aboriginal heritage. Thank you to everyone who has already donated their bags of lollies. The Twilight Markets are this coming Friday from 5pm. If possible could remaining donations please be sent to school by Wednesday? If you aren’t able to find the requested lollies, any bag is fantastic. A reminder that swimming notes and money needs to be returned to school soon.

Class 3
Last week’s Class Dojo winners were Isabelle, Fletcher, Charlotte, Konrad, Rohan, and Cohen. Last Thursday we took part in an Aboriginal Cultural day which was very educational and engaging. Unfortunately due to bad weather Touch football was cancelled last week, instead we participated in indoor golf activities. It was a lot of fun. We will be running a colour hair spraying and fake tattoo stall at the Twilight Markets this Friday, We hope to see you there!

Class 4-5
Class Dojo winners were Gabel and Eden, well done! Don’t forget our Twilight markets are this Friday! During class we will be baking cookies for our stall. If any parents/guardians/grandparents are willing to donate biscuits or slices to our stall for the Twilight Markets that would be greatly appreciated! All donations need to have a list of ingredients supplied for allergy purposes. Please bring them in by Thursday. Students will be paying their respects on Wednesday at 10:50am for Remembrance Day. Have a great week.

Class 5-6
Well done to Robbie and Blake who have earned 500 Hume Awards and will receive their Gold certificate! The class award this week goes to Tim Medcraft for fantastic attendance at school. The Class Dojo awards goes to Annie Coles. Thank you to those parents and friends that are volunteering their time to help out at our Twilight Markets. A roster went home with all students from our class yesterday, detailing what time students and parents are on our stall. This Friday is the last day that Year 6 students can submit the cover entries for the school magazine. Don’t forget our assembly item this Thursday at 2:45pm!
